

GREAT PROGRESS IN CONSTRUCTION OF COUNTY ROADS

Work Completed This Year
Cost Three Quarters
Of a Million.

RESUME WORK ON ROADS IN SPRING

Secondary Road System To Receive Attention
Next Year.

Lisbon, Dec. 10.—In the face of financial difficulty, appreciable progress in road construction was made by Columbiana county this year. Projects of major importance costing close to three-quarters of a million dollars some of them begun in 1922, have been completed.

With the end of 1923 in sight, records of the engineer, auditor and commissioners show that the county's road systems have been materially augmented, although thorough road development here is still in its infancy and many projects clamor for improvement.

Since the same board of commissioners will be in office during 1924 it is likely that spring will see steps taken to supplement what has been done. Roads still in disrepair will be graded and surfaced as funds permit, while something probably will be done to develop the county's secondary system, consisting of township dirt roads.

This fall has seen the completion of a vast section of the Lincoln highway running through the county, some of which has been torn up since the fall of 1922. The four-mile stretch between Lisbon and Hanover town cost nearly $157,000, while that between Lisbon and East Liverpool, nearly two and one-half miles long, cost $82,000 in round figures. A total of $239,000 on this one thoroughfare, in which the state and federal government participated.

Highways Improved
Briefly, here are the major projects finished this year:

Lincoln highway, between Lisbon and East Liverpool.

Lincoln highway, between Lisbon and Hanover.

Youngstown-Lisbon rd, between Lisbon and Leetonia.

East Palestine-New Waterford rd; 11.55 miles.

North Georgetown-Hanover rd; 12.66 miles.

Salem-Goshen rd; 1.41 miles.

Columbiana-Middleton rd; 1.74 miles.

Dixonville rd, East Liverpool; 1.295 miles.

In addition, grading has been finished on the Salem-Hanover rd, a 28-foot roadway 2.90 miles long, costing $20,640.70, while a 2.23 mile grading job between Summitville and Millport, Franklin township was completed this fall at a cost of $13,982.60, the first road improvement ever made in the township.

Besides these considerable grading has been done on the proposed Wellsville-Salineville rd, from the Garside switch to the Yellow Creek township line. All of it lies in Washington township. The improvement of part of this road will be one of the major projects for 1924. Contracts have been let for construction of a bridge and for surfacing nearly two miles with brick 16 feet wide.

Another construction job slated for early next year is surfacing of the Wellsville-East Liverpool rd, the contract for which was let this fall by the state highway department at $79,233.47.

A number of costly concrete bridges are numbered among road improvements of this year. One is near (Continued on fourth page.)

ROAD PROJECTS FACING COUNTY HEADS IN 1924

Lisbon, Dec. 10.—Next year's road program in this county is expansive enough—if the funds last. The major projects alone call for thousands of dollars, most of which will be paid by county and townships, since little state or federal aid has been granted.

The only state or federal aid available is $24,000—$6,000 of which is placed on the Youngstown-East Liverpool highway from the cemetery to the St. Clair line; and the remaining $18,000 of which is apportioned to the Rogers-Middleton rd, slightly more than three miles.

Roads which the commissioners will attempt to improve next year include:

The Unity-Petersburg rd, which the state has ordered let in 1924.

The Rogers-Middleton rd, in which Fairfield and Elkrun townships, with the county, are concerned.

The Elkrun-Lisbon rd, long in disrepair.

The Salem-Lisbon rd, which has greatly deteriorated under heavy traffic.

The Lincoln highway in Madison township, which by spring will likely be in deplorable condition.

The East Palestine-Nerley rd, which for a quarter-mile is rough and filled with holes.

The Wellsville-Salineville rd, now partly under contract, in which state and federal aid will figure.

The Wellsville-East Liverpool rd, contract for which has been let by the highway department.

The Salem-Hanover rd, grading of which is virtually complete.

COOLIDGE FAVORS BIG PROGRAM FOR AIR DEVELOPMENT

Sends Special Message To Congress, Endorsing
Proposed Plan.

Washington, Dec. 10.—President Coolidge today sent a special message to congress endorsing the comprehensive program of the national advisory committee for aeronautics for the development of civil and military aviation in the United States.

Among the recommendations of the committee was the establishment of a bureau of civil aeronautics in the department of commerce.

The advisory committee is headed by Dr. Charles D. Walcott, secretary of the Smithsonian institute, and includes Dr. Joseph Ames of Johns Hopkins university; Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service; Rear Admiral William A. Moffett, chief of the navy bureau of aeronautics; Orville Wright and other persons identified with the development of aviation.

"The attention of congress," President Coolidge said in transmitting the report, "is invited to the conclusion of the committee's report, which contains the constructive recommendations for the advancement of aeronautics, civil and military."

"I wish especially to endorse the recommendation of the national advisory committee for the establishment of a bureau of civil aeronautics in the department of commerce."

"I concur in the committee's views as to the necessity of scientific research and importance of providing for the continued development of military and naval aviation if America is to keep abreast of other nations."

The president called attention to a letter from Dr. Walcott attached to the report, which declared that "air navigation as an improved means of transportation, is destined to become as indispensable as the automobile."

MAHONING KLAN PURCHASES FARM

Tabernacle To Be Erected
On Farm Near Canfield
Fair Grounds.

The Mahoning county Ku Klux Klan has decided to purchase a 267-acre farm on the Salem rd, near the Canfield fair grounds for a country club and home.

The land will cost about $40,000. Klan spokesmen say.

Action for the purchase was taken at the Klan meeting at Canfield Sunday and the deal will be made early this week.

The club is to be named the Komty Kenter Klub. Kieable Gunder today said a tabernacle will be built on the farm at once for winter meetings and work on the country club will start in the spring.

Plans call for a club of the most modern design, including a lot of the usual features of a country club such as a golf links, etc.

The purchase of the farm is the first step in a building program of the Mahoning county Klan, which calls for the purchase in the near future of land in Youngstown for a Klan temple.

NEW SILVER FOX FARM IS STARTED

Birkhimer And Kenreigh Go
To Erie To Purchase
Several Foxes.

Joseph P. Birkhimer and Albert V. Kenreigh leave for Erie, Pa., Tuesday morning to meet W. K. Rogers of Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, Canada.

Mr. Birkhimer and Mr. Kenreigh have purchased a large order of Black Silver foxes from W. K. Rogers for the new Salem Silver fox farm, to be conducted by a selected number of well known people in and about Salem.

The Salem fox farm will be one of the largest in Ohio and the animals purchased will be of the old Dalton-Oulton-Tuplin and Reyner strains with pedigrees dating back for years to the old original stock.

Albert Kenreigh is a well known, prosperous farmer in this section. Joseph Birkhimer, superintendent of Grandview cemetery, is also well known and is considered one of the best if not the best hunter in this section of the country. His judgment of fur-bearing animals is acknowledged by most followers of outdoor life to be surpassed by few lovers of this sport.

Mr. Birkhimer has hunted extensively in this country and Canada and while visiting Canada had an opportunity to learn about the breeding of Black Silver foxes and the enormous profits obtained in this industry.

While in Erie, Mr. Birkhimer and Mr. Kenreigh will visit the Lake Pleasant Fur farm where Mr. Rogers placed 33 pairs of Black Silver foxes. On their return Wednesday Mr. Rogers will accompany them to Salem with the purpose of inspecting the land, also to explain the fox industry to the members of the company and their friends.

HUMAN DEATH TRAP STORY RECITED BY TRAGEDY WITNESS

Pictures Panic-stricken
Humanity Fighting
For Its Life.

Pittsburg Dec. 10.—A story of a human death trap, giving a picture of panic-stricken humanity fighting for its life through a night of terror, was painted here today by George B. Maier of Wilkinsburg, one of three men whose stalled automobile was partly responsible for the wreck of Twentieth Century Limited at Forsyth, N. Y., Sunday.

"We drove onto the crossing some minutes before the train reached there," Maier said, "but just as we got in the middle our engine stalled. 'We worked frantically for what seemed almost an hour but what was in reality but a few seconds and then, when we saw we would be unable to escape the train, we jumped and fled to the side of the track, just as the engine plowed into the car throwing its wreckage in all directions.'"

"It was so dark and foggy we could hardly see but we stood by a train slowed down and came to a halt, about 200 yards away. We were walking toward the engine when I heard the screech of a locomotive whistle. It seemed right behind the rear of the halted train and the next instant before I could speak to my companions there was a deafening crash."

Blood-Curdling Screams
"Then in a moment everything was quiet, so quiet the stillness seemed almost heavy. Then came the most blood-curdling screams, not screams exactly but like shrieks."

"We ran toward the demolished coaches but it was too dark to make out anything. We could dimly see forms struggling inside the overturned cars in which the injured were moaning, praying and cursing."

"Residents of the neighborhood came running out; farmers brought lanterns and we joined them in searching the debris for bodies. After what seemed an interminable length of time, ambulances, physicians and nurses reached the scene."

"Up to then there had been but one doctor, a woman from Chicago—somebody said her name was Dr. Thoren—and she did the work of a dozen in caring for the injured."

"I have often read of train wrecks but I never imagined it was anything like what we saw—I'll never forget that night."

SLOGANS FOR HAPPY CITY SUGGESTED BY READERS

D. H. Rummel's question, "What does Salem need to make it happy?" submitted in a letter to this paper, has brought several suggestions. One of the most interesting is that given by the writer Mr. Rummel says:

"My answer to the question would be, 'A congenial home.' The object is to show the necessity of citizens to look upon Salem as their home—to show that if they would be happy, they must each proceed with city affairs much the same as they would in their individual homes, by practicing cleanliness, congeniality and charity—charity towards others' opinions and idiosyncracies.

"In this manner the Community building would become the city's nursery, where each set of ideals or talents would meet at stated periods, systematically to play its game for the social benefit of all."

"All be law-abiding citizens" is the slogan suggested by J. D. Paxson, while "Righteousness" and "Tolerance" are other suggested slogans for the city. Cleanliness, congeniality and charity," is another slogan, and Rev. C. H. Haug suggests "Have faith in God."

PROBE WRECK IN WHICH NINE LIVES ARE LOST

Twentieth Century Limited
Crashes Into Train
Near Erie, Pa.

SCORES INJURED,
SOME CRITICALLY

First Section Had Stopped
After Hitting Auto At Grade Crossing.

Erie, Pa., Dec. 10.—Three separate official probes were under way here today as a result of the wreck of the Twentieth Century limited crash flyer of the New York Central railroad, at a Forsyth, N. Y., grade crossing early Sunday morning which took a toll of nine lives and left scores of passengers injured, some perhaps fatally.

The road's official investigation to determine the actual cause of the wreck, reported to have resulted when Section 1 of the train, which had stopped after striking an automobile was telescoped by another section under the direction of John Brogan, superintendent of the Erie division.

A coroner's probe to determine why bodies of the dead were removed from New York state into Erie and to give a verdict on the deaths, will get under way and will terminate at a coroner's inquest at the railroad office tomorrow.

The interstate commerce commission also is expected to conduct an investigation. The Forsyth grade crossing, already this year has been responsible for 14 deaths.

A check-up of the dead and injured this morning showed these victims:

The Dead
William E. (Bill) Donovan, Philadelphia, manager of the New Haven baseball club; Ralph Parnell, New York city, Pullman porter (negro); Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sullivan, Springfield, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Otto Sweet, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Stureman, Springfield, Ill.; Mrs. Carl D. Kinsey, 5649 Winthrop Place, Chicago.

Critically Injured
Carl D. Kinsey, Chicago; George Weiss, New Haven, Conn., expected to die; George E. Van Hagen, Chicago; George E. Van Hagen, Jr., Chicago.

Injured Slightly
John Zant, New York city; A. H. Bailey, Chicago; M. S. Lawrence, Chicago.

According to unofficial reports of the disaster the first section of the flyer stopped after hitting an automobile at the Forsyth grade crossing. The occupants of the machine, residents of Wilkinsburg, Pa., had leaped before the crash.

Section 2 was flagged and a brakeman, F. G. Akerman, was sent back from train No. 2 with the customary fuses to flag No. 3. His explanation of the crash he gave as follows:

"I grabbed three fuses and my lantern and ran back at least the length of my train and lighted one of the signals. I then ran toward the first approaching No. 3 and lighted another. The third section rushed past me going more than 20 miles an hour and a moment later I heard the crash."

Charles Patterson of Buffalo, engineer, and E. J. Renier, Buffalo, fireman of the third section, declare that due to the heavy fog they failed to see the warning fuses until within a few hundred feet of the No. 1 section. Patterson says his train then was going about 30 miles an hour, that he instantly applied his brakes but that he was unable to hold the train.

The third section engine plowed through the rear car of its pilot section, a wooden car in which all of the killed were passengers. It continued on through two more cars and was stopped only when it reached the steel Pullman three cars from the end of the train.

Budget Reveals Big Cut In Expenditures Of U. S. Government

Washington, Dec. 10.—President Coolidge today sent to congress the federal budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1924, providing for governmental expenditures aggregating $3,298,980,444, more than a quarter of a billion dollars less than the total to be expended during the present fiscal year.

Accompanying the budget was a special message dealing in detail with the president's opposition to a soldiers' bonus and giving his reasons for the administration's firm stand for an immediate and sweeping reduction of federal taxes.

Congress

THE present session of congress may prove to be a blessing or a calamity to the country, but all too often the nation is called upon to endure the latter experience.

The worst elements of the old rampant partisanship now are exemplified in the hectic fanaticism of the so-called progressive insurgents in the house and senate. Not principles of broad constructive policy inspire the activities of these alleged representatives of the people, but the patient prerogatives of power, a power which, exercised by them, will operate for the disintegration of the fabric of our economic and social institutions.

There is a growth of radicalism, and by radicalism is meant socialistic tendencies of men like La Follette. His willing, credulous and admiring followers and supporters, the Johnsons and shipsteads, may be counted upon to play the game of their master; others who support him and his iconoclastic programs will do so because they expect to profit through the triumph of a political revolution which, among other things, would subordinate the supreme court of the nation to the will of the polyglot aggregation of individuals directed by an arrogant and ruthlessly ambitious majority leadership.

But the hope of the nation is in the same conservatism which has preserved it to this time. And the thought of Theodore Roosevelt is pertinent here: "Every man ought to love his country. If he does not love his country and is not eager to serve her, he is a worthless creature and should be contemptuously thrown out of the country when possible and, at any rate, debarred from all rights of citizenship in the country. He is only entitled to one country. If he claims loyalty to two countries, he is necessarily a traitor to at least one country."

The former president, of course, was speaking of a certain class of men who were dangerous during the period of the war, but his words are equally applicable to any man who, instructed with a public stewardship, sets class against class, section against section, who holds personal or political interest to be superior to duty to the entire citizenry of the nation, or who strives in any respect to accomplish his ends without consideration of the rights and interests of the people as a whole.

Patriotism and not party, principle and not pernicious propaganda, should guide this and every congress in the conduct of public affairs.

Choosing The Right Men

A CITIZENS' meeting will be held on Tuesday evening at the Chamber of Commerce rooms for the purpose of discussing the approaching reapportionment of real estate of the county and to choose an advisory board of five citizens to act in conjunction with the county auditor in the reapportionment details.

From a taxpayers' standpoint, this is one of the most important meetings that has been held in this city for many months, probably years. Five persons are to be chosen to represent the property holders and to give information and advice to the appraisers and auditor as the work of reapportioning the property goes forward. It is highly important that the right kind of persons be chosen for this board. They may be called upon to give determining evidence and facts that may materially affect certain or all property valuations.

It is understood that the auditor desires that the city council and board of education be represented on this advisory committee, and these bodies should be represented ably on the committee. This leaves but three places to fill and it is probably with reference to these three that the community meeting will have largest say. There are at least two classes of property-holders whose interests should be properly guarded in the choice of the personnel of this committee, namely the owners of large interests such as the factories, and the owners of the smaller interests, such as the homes.

It is to be hoped that the meeting may be very fully attended.

Selenium Kills Weeds.

How dandelions, plantain, dock, and other broad-leaved plants have been completely banished from lawns in experiments with a new chemical spray was told by E. Marion Lougee and H. S. Hopkins at a meeting of the American Chemical society. Good control over bitter root, apple scab and other fungous diseases was also indicated. The lawn weeds were eradicated with only slight injury to blue grass and clover, but the control of the plant diseases was accompanied by considerable injury to the foliage.

Selenium was used instead of the sulphur, commonly employed in such poison solutions. The most successful of these selenium sprays was found to be selenium acid and sodium selenite.

HIS REMEDY FOR INSOMNIA

Won't Be Found in Any Medical Work, But It Was Satisfactory in This Physician's Case.

The first three doctors to arrive for a meeting of the Medical society's directors were a general practitioner, a surgeon and a specialist in curative psychology.

The talk fell to insomnia as they waited away the waiting and, as doctors will, they came at last to their own experiences.

"I stick to the old reliable formula when I can't sleep—I count sheep," said the general practitioner. "I've counted millions. It doesn't seem to work very well, but nothing does."

"As for me," said the surgeon, "I try to see myself climbing a mountain that never ends. I've never come to the top because I keep it up till I either go to sleep or have to get up for breakfast. But maybe—" and he turned to the third—"maybe psychiatry has something more certain than that."

The psychiatrist grinned through his distinguished gray beard.

"Well," he said, "I can't give any definite formula, but I'll tell you the prescription I follow myself. Wakefulness at night is such a waste I cut it as short as possible, and in extremity I find my method works—with me."

"Yes?"

"Now, don't laugh. But what I do is simply this: I sing to myself. I sing 'Go to Sleep my Little Pickaninny.' Just keep it up and it does the work. But for heaven's sake don't say I told you."—New York Sun.

GERMAN RELIEF NOW IS OPPOSED

PROPOSED APPROPRIATION OF $25,000,000 IS DECLARED TO BE UNNECESSARY.

FOOD PLENTIFUL OVER THERE

By EDWARD B. CLARK

Washington.—It may seem like an attempt to oppose the humanitarian, but there will be strong opposition in congress if an attempt is made to authorize an appropriation of $25,000,000 to feed the hungry in Germany.

The opposition will spring not from a desire to see anybody go hungry, but from a seeming belief in many quarters that Germany is able to feed its own hungry and that the proposal to appropriate the millions was prompted not only by American politics, but by the desire of the German government to help its plea that Germany cannot meet the reparations demands.

When the proposal to ask congress to appropriate $25,000,000 for relief in Germany first was made there was little opposition to it because it seemed on the face of it to be such a purely benevolent and proper measure. Now letters have come from Germany written by men who are in no sense anti-German, which state that the granaries of the land are bursting that there is plenty of food for everybody, and that all that is necessary to feed all the hungry is to provide for a proper distribution of the food supplies.

Plenty of Food in the Country.

The hungry in Germany, as near as Washington can learn through official and semi-official channels, are all city dwellers. The country folk seem to have all the food that they want and to spare. Naturally enough the latter do not want to part with their food for German marks which are virtually worthless. The money of a foreign country, it is said, instantly would move the German farmers to part with their surplus products and so the hungry in the cities could be fed as the result of an American appropriation of millions for the purpose.

Recently there has been an intimation that President Coolidge intends to recommend the passage of an appropriation bill in behalf of the hungry in Germany. Now it is said the President possibly may have another thought in the matter. For weeks there were heard and read in Washington innumerable tales of food troubles in the cities of Germany. Everybody took it for granted that the plea for help was straightforward and that the people over there were unable to help their own. Within a week or two direct counter reports have come and now opposition to the proposed appropriation by the American congress rapidly is developing.

It is held here by those who stand in opposition to the appropriation that the desire to help the hungry of Germany, if they need help, would be stronger than that to help the hungry of some other lands, for the sole reason that it is the American way to forget that people have been enemies and to be the more willing to help them because of the sentiment and the heart feeling which prompts men to do for those who in the past have been accounted enemies.

Politics in the Plan?

This plea for an appropriation in behalf of Germany perhaps curiously enough has aided the cause of the ex-service men who are seeking the passage of a bonus law. Many letters have been written for publication, the text of which has been pleas that if this country can care for the foreigner it can care for its own, and especially if it can care for the foreigner who is able to care for himself.

The charge has been made that there is politics in this plea to congress for an appropriation to feed the hungry in the German cities. Nobody knows whether this is true or not, but, of course, the basis of the charge is easy enough to understand. There are constituencies in which the vote of persons interested in the success of the proposed appropriation would count a good deal in the election next fall.

Apparently nobody in Washington desires to withhold the appropriation if it is necessary. Those who oppose it say directly, however, that there are a few German industrialists who have millions upon millions of dollars to their credit in foreign countries and who, if they chose, could feed their own hungry people. This, coupled with the information which has come from Americans in Germany who are in no sense anti-German in their feeling, that there is plenty of food in the country which, if properly distributed, could feed all the people, seemingly has moved men hitherto unwilling, into the field of willingness to oppose the American appropriation.

Only a Grease Spot.

The manager of the munition works was showing a friend over the factory. "What has become of Harry Green?" asked the visitor. "He was here a couple of months ago, wasn't he?"

"Ah," said the manager sadly. "Poor Harry—poor Harry!"

And he sighed deeply.

"Why, what happened to him?" asked the friend anxiously.

"Poor fellow. He was a good man, but absent-minded in the use of chemicals—very."

"Do you see that slight discoloration on the ceiling?"

"Yes."

"Well, that's Harry."

Persons who want anything know let the news in the want medium.

WHY BANKS?

LESSON II

By J. H. PUELICHER, Chairman,
Committee on Public Education, American Bankers Association.

J. H. Puelicher

Why does Government charter banks—simply to make money for stockholders, or because banks are needed by the public? What is a bank? Text books say, "A bank is a quasi-public corporation, chartered by State or Nation, to receive deposits and make loans."

STOCKHOLDERS = owners.

QUASI-PUBLIC = semi-public,—that is, owned by private stockholders, but regulated by government to see that the depositors' money is safely loaned.

STATE BANK CHARTER = privilege, grant or right to do a banking business under supervision of the State Banking Commissioner.

NATIONAL BANK CHARTER = grant to do business under supervision of the Federal Comptroller of the Currency.

SUPERVISION = the sending by government of examiners, at least once a year, into a bank without notice, to count its cash, examine its loans, bonds and mortgages, and see if its books are correct.

Banks can do only those things permitted in their charters. No business is more closely watched and regulated by State or Nation. Banks cannot, therefore, be run simply to make money for stockholders, but are chartered to meet the needs of the people and are held to that purpose by government supervision.

Many Farm Children Plan To Leave Land For City, They Say

Most of the farm boys who won county championships in Ohio club projects last year expect to stick to the farm, but a majority of the girl winners expect to come to town.

From answers to questions obtained from 513 of the 673 country youngsters who, picked as the best in their home counties, spent Club Week at the Ohio State university, it appears that exactly 60 percent of the boys and 40 percent of the girls look forward to rural life.

Club leaders at the college, so announcing, add that many of the youngsters who propose to leave the land will do so against their will simply because there seems no chance for them to get land or make the sort of home they want, out where they live. To another question which asked, "Would you rather live where you do live, or in a large city such as Columbus," only 2 1/2 percent of the boys and 11 percent of the girls indicated preference for city life.

Another section of the questionnaire showed that of the 513 youngsters who answered 86 took their first train trip when they came to Columbus for the week, and 334 spent their first night in a hotel.

The 513 boys and girls reported owning 2,653 head of cattle, hogs and sheep, and 9,324 head of poultry. The children's ages ranged from 12 to 18 and their bank accounts aggregated $50,554, almost an even $100 apiece.

HEALTHERS BACK CHRISTMAS SEALS

Perior : Physical Examinations Recommended by State Health Director as Means of Detecting Tuberculosis and Other Diseases.

IMPORTANCE of the annual sale of Christmas Seals in raising funds for voluntary health work and the value of periodic physical examinations were emphasized in a statement issued today by Dr. John E. Monger, director of the state department of health, in connection with the fourth annual conference of Ohio health commissioners, being held in Columbus this week.

"The Christmas Seal sale, which begins Dec. 1," Dr. Monger said, "is an annual opportunity for every one to contribute to a life saving campaign which will help all alike. It is a reminder to all of us of the value of good health."

"Health is something more than merely the absence of disease. It is a quality of Dr. J. E. Monger, one's life. But most people appreciate health only when they have lost it. 'How true this is may be realized from the striking experiences as that of the army in the recent world war, or that of certain large industrial concerns, or from examinations made in cities like Framingham, Mass. In the draft army, over a million and a quarter men realized for the first time in their lives that they were not healthy. In fact, more than one-half of this number found out that they were decidedly unhealthy, so much so that they couldn't fight for Uncle Sam."

"It has been found from experience that the only safe way to know whether you are healthy or not is to have an examination at reasonable intervals—at least once a year. Most of the large industries of the country are coming to realize that there is a great deal more to production than merely the provision of machines and the sales and distribution forces. A medical and nursing staff to examine the men and women in the company and to advise with them regarding their health is absolutely essential."

"Take, for example, the experience of the National Cash Register company. Last year the average sickness in that plant of several thousand employees was reduced to one and one-half days per person. The United States Public Health Service has computed that the average loss from sickness in industrial concerns throughout the country is between seven and nine days per person. The National Cash Register company achieved its very low record by periodic medical examination and the correction of remedial defects among its employees."

"Take such a disease as tuberculosis, for instance. This can be detected in very early stages and can be cured if discovered in time. The private files of thousands of physicians in every part of the country bear tragic testimony to the thousands of men and women who waited until it was too late to overhaul their bodies, and who, as a result, were in the advanced stages of tuberculosis before they knew it."

New York, Dec. 10.—The stock market was irregular at the opening today. Steel shares were inclined to heaviness, while motors and accessories were steady. An outstanding feature was a two-point rise in Marland Oil to 36.

ALL URGE LAW ENFORCEMENT

Donahey, Marshall and Crabbe
Address Conference.

LOCAL OFFICIALS DULY WARNED

Those Guilty of Laxity in Law Enforcement Will Be Summarily Removed From Office—State Highway Director to Open Bids For Road Building — Cable In Republican gubernatorial Race.

Columbus Dec. 10.—Governor Donahey will return to their native country all aliens found guilty of violating American liquor and narcotic laws.

In his speech before the conference of federal, state, county and municipal officers here, the governor declared that a man's attitude toward enforcement of existing law is a good barometer of his Americanism. Repeating the difficulties encountered in the enforcement of the prohibition laws and the fact that enforcement officers have been assaulted and murdered and their homes dynamited, Donahey said: "A relentless policy must be adopted to bring about the apprehension, prosecution and conviction of these anarchists who stab at the heart of orderly society. Every agency of the state will be placed at the command of sheriffs and prosecuting attorneys in order that punishment of these offenders may be swift and certain."

The governor said that he would strictly enforce in the future, as in the past, the law providing that the governor may remove local officials guilty of laxity in law enforcement. He warned the 600 officials present against unreasonable or unlawful search, and urged enforcement of the anti-gambling laws.

Commercialization of the prohibition laws, "their use as a tool to work out personal spite by means of unlawful or unreasonable search or seizure, or the imposition of extortionate fines for minor offenses must not be permitted," the governor declared.

Chief Justice Marshall of the state supreme court declared that the entire problem of prohibition enforcement is one of good citizenship. "Too many citizens have reached the point, apparently, where they think they have the right to condemn and defy the laws of which they don't approve," he said. "This is true of a lot of public officials who take their oath of office to support the laws and constitution with a mental reservation excepting the prohibition amendment and prohibition laws."

Attorney General C. C. Crabbe, in his address, said he would like to "break up the powerful gang shipping through from Pittsburgh to Columbus." Evidence of powerful interests behind "the hip-pocket bootlegger" is disclosed in frequent wrecks on the highways, he declared.

State Director of Highways Boulay will open bids next Tuesday for road building to cost approximately $7,000,000. The bids cover 11 different jobs and will be the last contracts to be awarded this year.

The largest contract included at the present time is that for repairing 4,095 miles of the National highway in Montgomery county. The estimated cost of this improvement with brick is $212,183.

Other contracts for which bids will be received include the following stretches of highway:

2,544 miles of the Marietta-Athens road in Athens county, estimated cost of reinforced concrete, $88,887.

1,110 miles of the Youngstown-East Liverpool road in Columbiana county, estimated cost, $24,777.

2,049 miles of the Akron-Cleveland road in Cuyahoga county, reinforced concrete, estimated cost, $117,404.

Three miles of the Chardon-Madison road, Geauga county, estimated cost resurfacing $53,383.

Two contracts on the Marion-Galena road, Marion county, estimated cost of brick roadway, $53,139 and $6,555.

9,972 mile of the Cincinnati-Zanesville road in Pickaway county, estimated cost brick, $40,802.

9,457 mile Canton-Staubenville road, Stark county, brick construction, $24,579.

1,493 miles Alliance-Minerva road, Stark county, estimated brick construction, $50,650.

1,384 mile, Bucyrus-Upper Sandusky road, Wyandot county, bituminous construction, $34,988.

Immediate action will not be taken by the state building commission to decide where the new state office building will be built. It is practically certain, however, that the eventual choice of a site will be the present state house grounds if plans can be designed in harmony with the present structure.

Refusal of the city of Columbus to accept the state's bid of $550,000 for an old city hall site, together with the fact that a building erected there would be surrounded with other buildings which are alleged fire hazards.

Persons who want anything know that The News is the Want Medium.

members of the commission indicated, has practically eliminated that site from consideration.

"One of the purposes of a new office building was to eliminate the fire hazard which now threatens the safety of state records and property," it was pointed out by State Auditor Tracy, member of the commission. "By building on the state house grounds the fire hazard will be greatly reduced."

Governor Donahey and Attorney General Crabbe, other members of the commission, also favor the state house grounds site.

C. G. Williams of the state bureau of farm products experimentation is of the opinion that Ohio should not decrease her wheat acreage for next year despite the frequent requests from various states in the middle west asking for such action. The purpose of the other states, particularly Minnesota and Kansas, in decreasing the wheat acreage is to avoid the possibility of surpluses and thus doing prevent a lowering in the price of wheat, Mr. Williams avers.

"Recent experiments conducted by the experiment group at Ohio State university, show that farmers in Ohio can grow wheat for 15 to 25 cents less than the market price. The test in question was conducted in Green county and included 20 farmers. The wheat grown during the four years covered in the test showed a decrease of 83 cents per bushel in production costs," Mr. Williams said.

Basing his belief on the results obtained in these tests, Mr. Williams stated that it would be folly for Ohio to decrease her wheat acreage when she was coming to the point where it is possible to grow wheat at a profit. "It would be much better for the country as a whole to adopt the policy of not decreasing wheat acreage," he said.

Five silver trophy cups will be awarded during the present school year for the best newspaper and magazine entered in the annual Ohio high school newspaper contest, to be held under the auspices of the department of journalism, Ohio State university. One large cup will be awarded next spring to the best magazine, and another to the best paper. The smaller cup will go to the newspaper receiving first in the various classes of publications.

Assistant Professor L. C. Getzlow of the department of journalism is in charge of arrangements for the competition. Members of the department staff, with such other persons as may be appointed, will judge the publications. They will be judged on the basis of appearance, style of news, editorials, art work, value and service to their schools. Winners of second and third places will be awarded certificates of merit.

In last year's contest 47 newspapers and 15 magazines were entered. The Thistle of Scott High, Toledo, won first prize in the magazine contest, and the Weekly Star of Cleveland East Tech. won the newspaper competition. Entry blanks will be sent this month to eligible schools. Registration must be completed by April 1. The winners will be announced May 15th.

In announcing his candidacy for the Republican nomination for governor Representative John L. Cable of the Fourth Ohio district gave a general outline of the issues of the forthcoming contest, as he sees them.

"The two principal issues in the campaign next year will be taxation and prohibition," Cable said. "I am now studying the taxation systems of other states with a view to ascertaining how the best features of the plans that have worked satisfactorily in other states might be adapted to the Ohio situation. At the proper time I expect to present to the voters of Ohio some concrete facts and suggestions on the subject of taxation for their consideration."

"The other issue that will be uppermost in Ohio next year is prohibition, as represented by the question of law enforcement. I believe in prohibition and I wish to be helpful in getting it firmly established as the permanent, irrevocable policy of this country."

Representative Frank Murphy of the Steubenville district is devoting his spare time to wishing the nomination on his colleague, Representative Theodore E. Burton of Cleveland. He is the custodian of the Burton boom in Washington and he is receiving no encouragement from Mr. Burton. "Theodore Burton is the one Republican who can redeem the party in Ohio," said Murphy. "If he becomes a candidate he will have a walk-over, both for the nomination and election. He owes it to the Republican party of Ohio not to refuse."

Ohio cities will be arranged in the following order in which they will be granted armories at the next meeting of the Ohio national guard board designated for the purpose: Dayton, Youngstown, Canton, Lima, Mansfield, Babbington, Greenfield, Willoughby, Findlay, Chillicothe, Westerville, London, Ravenna, Fort Recovery, Greenville and Washington C. H.

Representatives from the chambers of commerce of the various cities met with the armory advisory board, which is made up of 16 regimental and brigade heads, recently, and presented the cases of their separate municipalities. It is Adjutant General Henderson's purpose to arrange the cities in the order of greatest necessity and to obtain armories for them within the next six or eight years.

Home-made Remedy
Stops Coughs Quickly

The best cough medicine you ever used. A family supply easily and quickly made. Saves about $2.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cough, is a remedy which is easily prepared at home in just a few moments. It's cheap, but for prompt results it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 24 hours. Tastes pleasant, too—children like it—and it is pure and good.

Four 2½ ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle, then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. This you make a full pint—a family supply—but costing no more than a small bottle of ready-made cough syrup.

And as a cough medicine, there is really nothing better to be had at any price. It goes right to the spot and gives quick, lasting relief. It promptly heals the inflamed membranes that line the throat and air passages, stops the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and soon your cough stops entirely. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, famous for its healing effect on the membranes.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

COURT NEWS

Guardian Appeals

An appeal has been taken to the common pleas court from the ruling of Probate Judge Lodge Riddle in the matter in which he refused to allow fees to the guardian of nine-year-old Robert H. Bower, son of Clara Bower of Homeworth.

Steven Sanor was appointed guardian of both Robert and Milton Bower in 1907, Milton now being of legal age. He led an account of his guardianship later after being requested to do so, and in January 1920 he died, and his wife was appointed administratrix of his estate. Her duties as administratrix required her to file an account of his guardianship of the boy, and when she complied with the request of the court that she do so and the same was heard, Judge Riddle refused to allow fees for services for the reason that during a large part of the time the funds of the boy were mingled with those of the guardian and no interest accounted for. The matter will be heard soon in the higher court.

LEAGUE LEADERS WILL FIGHT MORE SWAY FOR LANDIS

Johnson And Heydler Are Prepared For Show-down At Meeting.

Chicago, Dec. 10.—Having arrived at the conclusion that the imperial arm of Judge Landis has reached sufficient length, and individuality, it is said that Presidents Johnson and Heydler of the American and National leagues, respectively, will stand heel to heel in an attempt to throw off the hood of the figurehead at the baseball meetings here this week.

The judge, it is said, wishes to arrogate unto himself the privilege of riding herd over the activities of major league umpires.

He may persuade the magnates, both minor and major, that a new draft agreement is not only justifiable but expedient, he may prevail upon deaf ears to hear a plea for a more equitable distribution of world's series and expenses, he may jam through any and all of whatever remaining reforms he may have in mind. But on the question of umpire control, Messrs. Johnson and Heydler will be so much granite.

This is one of their few excuses for official existence, and as such is a most valued relic of an affluent past.

Might Gain Independence
A further consideration is that a fight for recognition on this point might lead to greater independence for Johnson and Heydler in other details. The business whereby the judge proceeded with his world's series arrangement, while the two presidents cooled their heels elsewhere still rankles.

The issue, if any, is to be settled with dignified moderation, it is said. Not many weeks ago, there was whisperings of another internal war, with Johnson and Landis aligned on opposite sides of the fence but of late little has been heard of the alleged insurrection and it is presumed that it died a natural death.

Baseball men in general, however, are as one in opposing any move that would invest Landis with more power than he already wields. They think he has too much already and are disposed to intimate as much but a "gentlemen's agreement," signed in good faith by all concerned, has them stopped.

The agreement binds them to accept the rulings of the commissioner without comment, adverse or otherwise. But it does not bind them to accept all of his ideas and reforms with blind faith, and on the matter of regulating and appointing the umpires, the magnates are said to stand almost in a body behind the two presidents.

Stores Offer Big Variety For Your Gift Selections

More handkerchiefs are given away in the name of Christmas than any other gift on the holiday market.

If you doubt it, try and wade your way through the breathless, hurrying crowds that gather around every handkerchief counter in town these days. Little cambric and linen squares flutter from poles and hang over the heads of shoppers like sheer canopies. They're in boxes on shelves and on counters. Literally thousands of them will be bought and given away.

At least that's what is indicated now. And shopping is being done early—so early that those who don't get in on it soon will be left.

But even in the rush you can see a glimmer now and then of that precious thing called Christmas spirit. It's in the air, on the streets, in the stores, everywhere.

One shopper is saying to another above the din of the holiday crowd, "I just want a little gift for Alice. We never exchange gifts you know, but still I would like to surprise her with something." Imagine how Alice is going to feel.

Another says, "No I don't think anyone can get too many handkerchiefs. These are just too cunning for words this year, too. I'd like to have about a million myself." And so on.

The toy department is fairly bursting with this glad spirit of the season. It would take a heart of stone not to sense it when the youngsters come in to look around. Or when the youngsters' mothers and fathers and uncles and aunts start looking around to see what they can buy that will spread joy to some little heart at Christmas.

Then there's the book department. There is enough peace and joy and goodwill being sold there these days to last the whole year through.

The nice book lady will tell you she has lots of "gift" books, especially suitable for Christmas. Some have beautiful bindings and some are standard editions. Bible stories with fine colored illustrations that appeal to children fiction, biographies and letters of famous people are having big sales.

"Conditions are such today that people are of a more inquiring mind. Their thoughts turn naturally to the more serious books like 'The Americanism of Roosevelt,' 'The Pace Letters,' biographies and books of travel," she tells you.

Even in the men's furnishing department the joy of Christmas reaches out and casts its magic spell. But then everybody knows that men depend entirely upon Christmas for their annual supply of shirts, ties, pajamas and socks. Christmas to them means everything in haberdashery.

The man who sells the ties and bathrobes said that this spirit thing hovered very closely over his department the other day. A dear old lady came in to buy an overcoat for her

One-Man War Looms Against Kellogg As Envoy To G. Britain

Washington, Dec. 10.—A one-man war loomed on the congressional horizon today when Senator Magnus Johnson, Farmer-Laborer of Minnesota, gave warning he will fight senatorial confirmation of the appointment of former Senator Frank P. Kellogg as ambassador to Great Britain.

"I will not stand for the appointment of Kellogg," Johnson said, "I don't believe ex-Senator Kellogg represents the ideas of the progressive people of America and therefore I will oppose his confirmation by the senate."

Johnson may be alone in his fight, for even his colleague, Senator Henrik Shipstead, Farmer-Laborer of Minnesota, said he was "undecided" about opposing Kellogg's appointment.

STATE GRANGERS
MEET IN TOLEDO

Convention Opens Tuesday Morning; 900 Delegates Are Expected.

Toledo, Dec. 10.—With an expected attendance of 900 delegates, the 51st annual meeting of the Ohio State Grange will open here Tuesday and continue through Thursday.

Figures for 1931 show that the Grange has a membership in Ohio of 148,000. Every agricultural section of the state will be represented by the delegates.

The program will open at 10 a. m. Tuesday, and the first day's session will be devoted to committee meetings and other routine business.

Grand Master Harry A. Cato of Fresno will preside. He will deliver his annual message in the afternoon and in the evening there will be a public reception.

Chief interest in Wednesday's meeting will center in the conferring of the fifth degree by the Williams county degree team. Sixth degree work will be given that evening.

Thursday the annual memorial services will be held.

Among Grange officials to be present will be C. A. Dyer of Coalton, overseer; G. F. Mason, Lisbon, steward; O. T. Demuth, New Philadelphia, treasurer; G. R. Lewis, Findlay, lecturer; W. G. Vandebark, Zanesville, secretary-business agent, and members of the executive committee which consists of Mr. Dyer, chairman; L. J. Taber, Barnesville, recently elected master of the National Grange; E. S. Tusing of Canal Winchester; D. D. Snider, Etna, and K. B. Thompson.

The Women's auxiliary will be represented by Mrs. Orla Snider, Basil; Mrs. A. P. Roudsush, Penaton, and Mrs. Zaynork, Columbus.

At the same time of the Grange meeting, a convention of sections of the Ohio, Michigan and Indiana threshermen's organizations will be held; dairy interests from the same territory also will have a meeting.

Pittsburg — Mrs. Emily Yochum, 80, was a dog fancier and at the time of her death owned 14 animals she had befriended. The dogs crouched about her bed guarding her body until neighbors discovered it.

Joint-Ease For
Stiff, Swollen Joints

Rheumatic or Otherwise Says: "When Joint-Ease Gets in—Joint Agony Gets Out"

It was a high-class pharmacist who saw prescription after prescription successfully on many obstinate cases, to get rid of rheumatic swellings and stiff inflamed joints.

And it was this same man who asserted that a remedy could and would be compounded that would make creaky, swollen, tormented joints work with just as much smoothness as they ever did.

Now this prescription, rightly named Joint-Ease, after being tested successfully on many obstinate cases, is offered through progressive pharmacists to the millions of people who suffer from ailing joints that need limbering up.

Swollen, twingy, inflamed, stiff, pain-tormented joints are usually caused by rheumatism, but whatever the cause Joint-Ease soaks right in, through skin and flesh and gets right to and corrects the trouble at its source.

Remember Joint-Ease is for ailments of the joints, whether in ankle, knee, hip, elbow shoulder spine or finger and when you rub it on, you may expect speedy and gratifying results.

It is now on sale at The J. H. Lease Drug Co., Fleming's drug store, Bolger & French, and druggists everywhere for 60 cents a tube.

Rickenbacker

A CAR WORTHY OF ITS NAME

FEATURES ALL CARS MUST HAVE—SOONER OR LATER

Unbiased authorities state that Rickenbacker has contributed more engineering refinements to the industry in three years than has been developed by all other makers combined in the past ten.

It is impossible to enumerate in one page all of the Rickenbacker features referred to in the above paragraph.

In your selection of a car, we would call your attention to the cardinal importance of the following:

We earnestly advise you to buy only a car that is equipped with 4-Wheel Brakes.

Rickenbacker has brakes on all four wheels of course—pioneered in this engineering feature which others are now hastily adopting.

Four-Wheel Brakes will prove to be the greatest improvement in automobiles since the introduction of the self-starter—43 years ago. Mark that prediction—and see.

We prophesy that in six months or less every automobile selling for $1,000 or over will have 4-Wheel Brakes. Watch and see.

Four-Wheel Brakes permit you to stop in half the distance you can with ordinary 2-wheel brakes and with less foot pressure. Your daughter can operate them with ease.

Then, there is the famous Rickenbacker motor which has no annoying Periods of Vibration. The tandem flywheel smooths out the motor at all speeds.

Also the "Carbonless Motor"—accomplished by the automatic air cleaner.

The Rickenbacker line includes handsome Touring Phaetons, graceful Coupes and superb Sedans. All are harmoniously fashioned. The closed cars have exquisite interiors.

THEATRES

Life at Hollywood

Patrons of the State theater are in for a genuine surprise when they witness "The World's a Stage," by Ellnor Glyn. The author holds the mirror up to life—the life of a screen actress in Hollywood and paints a wonderfully vital and true canvas of the hopes and trials, illusions, dreams, sorrow and happiness of the average screen star. Mrs. Glyn knows Hollywood. Therefore she writes with authority.

It is not a misstatement to declare that the picture will create as big a sensation on the screen as her other photoplays, "Her Great Moment," and "Beyond the Rocks," and as much as "Three Weeks," did with the fiction reading public.

Main Street

The screen adaptation of Sinclair Lewis' novel, "Main Street," will be shown at the Grand theater beginning Thursday.

The picturization of the novel is declared to have made an unusual picture wherein the characters of the story live vividly. It is said that the producers spared no time or expense in giving the picture the last perfect touches, even going to the extent of studying Main Street conditions and peculiarities.

Florence Vidor and Monte Blue play the feature roles, with a strong supporting cast made up of Harry Myers, Noah Berry, Louise Fazenda, Robert Gordon, Josephi Crowell, Gordon Griffiths, Otis Harlan and Alan Hale.
